Summary

This week I just made my task which Lin Ming gave me to get a contact table from our wiki. This task need simulate login which make me troubled. But I have complete the structure. There was just a little problem about it. Then I have found some paper for my overview. And this week I didn't make the prepare of the paper sharing which was a great falling.

To do List

I will complete the task about simulation login. And I will come to help Zhang Tianye with her overview. Meanwhile I will collect the papers of my overview. At last I have to focus on my Graduation Thesis.
